

Kuala Terengganu

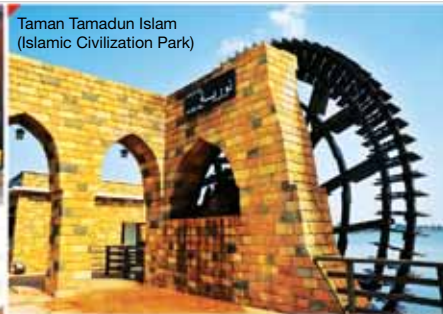

As the state and royal capital of Terengganu, Kuala Terengganu is a riverine city strategically located in the estuary of the Terengganu River. In the old days Kuala Terengganu used to be a busy port of call for traders, missionaries, scholars and sailors from the neighbouring region as well as from other parts of the world.

As a waterfront city with a tinge of traditional infrastructures, Kuala Terengganu is set to become a hub for tourism as well as a corridor for investors. Kuala Terengganu has an abundance of appeals and attractions, offering glimpses of a unique blend of local tradition, rich cultures, heritage and the beauty of nature, plus the warmth of its people, all together in the developing city of Kuala Terengganu.

How to get there

Pasar Payang is located in the centre of the city, within the vicinity of Dataran Shahbandar and Chinatown, overlooking the Terengganu River. It is easy to get to from wherever you might be staying.

PASAR PAYANG

The popular Payang Central Market, located by the Terengganu River is a perennial crowd-puller that provides a colourful snapshot of the amalgam of faiths and cultures found in Terengganu. It is one of the most popular tourist spots in Kuala Terengganu.

The wet market offers a variety of fresh from the sea products, meat, chicken, vegetables, spices, herbs, fruits and daily household items. The souvenir section offers an assortment of traditional handicrafts from souvenirs to songket, batik, handicraft products, brassware, t-shirts, toys, ladies garments and silk while its food court offers one of the best noodle soup in town. Visitors to this market will have a delightful experience mingling with the local crowds shopping for products.

TERENGGANU STATE MUSEUM

Acclaimed as the largest of its kind in Malaysia, the Terengganu State Museum in Bukit Losong houses century old artifacts and artworks of rich and colourful heritage. The complex itself is an impressive architectural feature, based on the designs of the ancient Terengganu palace. The complex's many galleries showcase textiles, historical artifacts, crafts, royal regalia, Islamic arts, contemporary arts, weapons, petroleum development, local history, sea faring trade, fisheries and marine galleries.

How to get there

The museum is accessible either by road or by river cruise from the Islamic Civilization Park. It is located in Bukit Losong, easily accessed by road and only takes 15 - 20 minutes from the city. The Heritage Town bus departs from MBKT bus terminal, brings passengers around town that includes the museum as part of its trip. Other alternative is by taxi or car.

CRYSTAL MOSQUE

Tucked at the tip of Pulau Wan Man, as a component of the Islamic Civilization Park, is the glittering Crystal Mosque. Majestically constructed with crystal shine glass and steel overlooking the scenic Terengganu River, it is the iconic splendour and pride of Terengganu. The breathtaking view of the Islamic Civilization Park with its colorfully light mosques and monuments as seen from the Terengganu Bridge is perfect picture with panoramic background.

How to get there

The Heritage City buses ply its daily route around Kuala Terengganu City including Taman Tamadun Islam as its last stop. Visitors could take a trip on Bas Bandar from Taman Shahbandar to get to Taman Tamadun Islam.

CHINA TOWN

Seafaring traders from Southern China began to establish settlements here in the late Ming Dynasty or early 1600's. It was once a hub for commercial activities that helped shape Kuala Terengganu into what it is today. The Chinatown's main street is flanked on both sides by colourful double story shop houses that carry a blend of culture and heritage. Two of the pre-war buildings has been recognized as a heritage site by the World Heritage Fund based in New York.

Retail outlets, tour & hotel operators, traditional Chinese medicine shops, souvenir shops, restaurants, electronic, hawker stalls, and grocery shops line the colourful street. It is also home to two grand temples or toapekongs, the Ho Ann Kiong and the Tien Hou Kong as well as the Taoist Kuan Ti Temple.

How to get there

Chinatown is conveniently located in Jalan Bandar in the heart of Kuala Terengganu City next to Pasar Payang and just opposite the Heritage Island (Pulau Warisan).

Other than the prominent Dragon Arch, there are other attractions within the vicinity such as Turtle Alley, Bukit Keledang, Kampung Tiong Market, the Green Lane, The Old Bridge, Teck Soon Heritage House, Tokay Wee Sin Hee Lane, the World Heritage Lane, Payang Memory Lane and the Vertical Garden.

NOOR ARFA CRAFT COMPLEX

With its meticulous design and high quality fabrics, Noor Arfa has achieved the status and rare distinction of being the largest batik producer in the country. Situated in Chendering, a short distance from the Ibai River (Sungai Ibai), Noor Arfa Craft Complex not only focuses on its manufacturing activities, but also has a wing where batik painting is demonstrated and another wing used as a craft school where visitors can take part in learning traditional crafts.

Having one of Malaysia's largest batik showrooms, their principle to always improvise and strive for the best in batik designs has won admiration and recognition throughout Malaysia.

How to get there

Noor Arfa Craft Complex is located 15 km south of Kuala Terengganu City in Chendering Industrial Area. Upon reaching the Ibai Bridge, take the right turn after the traffic light. Ample signage will show the way to the complex.

BUKIT PUTERI (PRINCESS HILL)

The historic Bukit Puteri is a 208-metre hill overlooking the Terengganu River estuary and the magnificent view of the South China Sea. It is among the favourite spot in the city and is situated next to the famous Istana Maziah. Historical records shows that it was already known as Bukit Puteri in the 16th century.

The hill has many historical attraction as it was once use as a strong hold and defence fort from enemy from the sea. There is a large brass bell known as 'Genta' which was struck during emergencies as well as notification of important festivals and royal events, chimed at different message tone to the surrounding townsfolk. There are also a family of cannons, flagpole, a lighthouse, cemetery and a fort. Bukit Puteri is accessible from the new Waterfront Heritage Bazaar.

How to get there

Bukit Puteri lies in the vicinity of Istana Maziah, Dataran Shahbandar and Pasar Payang. As it is in the heart of Kuala Terengganu City, it is easily accessible from wherever you might be staying.

ISTANA MAZIAH

Located at the foot of Princess Hill (Bukit Puteri), the design of this palace is a blend of modern and traditional architecture with a hint of French influence on its tall shuttered windows. Standing proudly overlooking the vibrant Kuala Terengganu waterfront, The Palace was constructed during the reign of Sultan Zainal Abidin III in 1897. What sets this palace apart is its use of a mixture of limestone and clay, strengthened with coarse salt, egg white and honey as its main building ingredients.

Maziah Palace has been the venue for royal celebrations, royal receptions of local and foreign dignitaries, royal weddings and conferment of titles.

How to get there

The palace is located at the foot of Bukit Puteri (Princess Hill), 200 meters from the Terengganu River, enroute to Pasar Payang.

FLOATING MOSQUE

The Floating Mosque, originally named Tengku Tengah Zaharah Mosque, is an awe-inspiring Malay and Moorish architecture design with picturesque surroundings. The mosque is situated on 5-acres of reclaimed land in Kuala Ibai, with its foundation built in the lagoon of the Ibai River. During high tide, the water rises covering the foundation creating the illusion of a floating mosque.

How to get there

It is situated in Kuala Ibai Lagoon near the estuary of Kuala Ibai River, 4 km south from Kuala Terengganu City. Upon reaching the Kuala Ibai traffic light, the mosque is prominently situated on the left.

How to get there

Pulau Duyung is accessible either by the water taxi, car or the Heritage City bus. Water taxi departs from Shahbandar Jetty with the crossing takes less than 10 minutes. When you arrive at Pulau Duyung jetty, walk to the left in between the Kampung houses to find the master boat makers and watch them at work. The Heritage City bus (departs from MBKT bus terminal in Kuala Terengganu) and cars access the island from the "Pulau Duyung" exit on Sultan Mahmud Bridge Highway, the main bridge crossing Sungai Terengganu (Terengganu River).

TRADITIONAL BOAT MAKING

Traditional boat builders of Terengganu are famous for their skills that have withstood the test of time. These craftsmen do not require plans or blueprints. They build boats and yachts from knowledge passed from previous generations and produce intricate designs with great precision and details. With a touch of modern technology and traditional precision, the boats and yachts built here are sought after by sailors from all over the world due to their sea-worthiness. Today, they continue to be a part of Terengganu's rich and vibrant heritage.

KOTA LAMA DUYONG

This building of historical significance is located on Pulau Duyong Kecil. It is an architectural wonder built in the 1920's. Kota Lama Duyong was constructed with bricks and wood, based largely on the traditional Malay and Islamic elements, with a hint of British influence. The Kota Lama Fort is an experimental building, a legacy of its owner, Dato' Biji Sura', a man known for his vision and futuristic ideas. The house was restored by the State as a unique attraction and is also acts as a heritage museum displaying local artifacts.

How to get there

Pulau Duyong is accessible either by the water taxi, car or the Heritage City bus. Water taxi departs from Shahbandar Jetty with the crossing takes less than 10 minutes. When you arrive at Pulau Duyong jetty, walk to the left in between the Kampung houses to find the Duyong Old Fort. The Heritage City bus (departs from MBKT bus terminal in Kuala Terengganu) and cars access the island from the "Pulau Duyong" exit on Sultan Mahmud Bridge Highway, the main bridge crossing Sungai Terengganu (Terengganu River).

RIVER CRUISE ACTIVITY

Visitors to the Islamic Civilization Park (TTI) in Wan Man Island can enjoy river cruise along the scenic Sungai Terengganu while stopping over at the State Museum and other interesting attractions along the river during the hour long journey that includes cruising around Pulau Duyung, visiting the scenic traditional fishing village of Seberang Takir as well as stopping by at Payang Market. The cruise starts and ends at the jetty near the iconic Crystal Mosque. There are also night cruises with dining experience where passengers can savour authentic Terengganu or western dishes while enjoying a panoramic view. Definitely a memorable journey that will mesmerize shutterbugs.

HOW TO GET THERE

By Road

Terengganu is accessible via intercity expressway networks from all major towns and cities in Peninsular Malaysia, Thailand and Singapore. The new East Coast Highway and the Simpang Pulai Highway via Tasik Kenyir offers a convenient and scenic journey. Driving by car with friends or loved ones can be pretty much an interesting trip. Aside from the greeneries that can be seen throughout your journey, the fresh air and unpolluted countryside can offer a captivating experience. Once you get to Terengganu road, the beautiful beaches and blue waters welcomes you. Travelling from the south through the Segamat Highway offers an exciting trip as well. Luxury double-decker coaches, taxis and rental cars are available from all major cities in Peninsular Malaysia.
